Twelve members of Hilltop Friendship Circle, the women's group of East Mattapoisett Friends' Meeting, met at the home of Mrs. Marian S. Hatton in Mattapoisett. Officers elected are as follows: Mrs. Hatton, president; Mrs. Edna L. Borden, secretary and Mrs. Ruth Martocci, treasurer.

"If a man takes no thought about what is distant, he may find sorrow near at hand."

ROCHESTER GRANGE OBSERVES 54th ANNIVERSARY

Nearly 100 persons attended the 54th anniversary celebration of the Rochester Grange last Wednesday night. Among those present were three charter members, Mrs. A. L. Hartley, Mrs. Abbie Macomber and Mrs. Lottie Bradford. Each received a corsage of roses. Past Masters, Mrs. Katherine Gayoski, Thomas Gayoski, William MacGregor, Joseph Silveira and Maurice Fuller, were each presented a white carnation and each spoke briefly.

Arthur Thompson, State Grange master, and Mrs. Merritt of the State Grange home and community service, were also introduced. A candle lighting service, one for each deceased master, was held.

A huge birthday cake decorated in blue and gold was served with other refreshments by Mrs. John Gayoski and her committee. Lecturer's March prizes were won by Joan Paulino of Freetown and Mrs. Howard of Fairhaven. Paul Ouellette was the winner of the door prize.

Entertainment included solos by Sandra Gayoski; baton and tap routines by Samuel DeMello; Lorna Lizotte, Donald Hill and Carol Taylor, tap dance, with Lorna and Carol returning in a ballet; also a tap dance by Priscilla Smith. Lyle Demoranville and his one man band played several selections.

The next meeting, February 24th, the Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange will fill the chairs and provide entertainment.

East Freetown officers filled the chairs for the anniversary, and other granges represented were Middleboro, Marion, Acushnet, New Bedford, Wamsutta, Smith Mills, Fairhaven and Nemasket.
